P. J. DEVLIN DEPOSED

As Editor of the Democratic National Press Bureau.

ACTION OF THE COMMITTEE.

The Charges of the Harrison Faction Are Sustained.

BRYAN SPEAKS AT AUDITORIUM

Full Account of the Proceedings of the Conference of the Democratic National Committee at Chicago With Meetings of Bimetallic League.

Chicago, July 20.—P. J. Devlin, editor of the National Press Bureau of the Democratic Committee, has been deposed by the national committee for the part he took in the last mayoralty contest in Chicago, when he, in his official capacity, espoused the candidacy of ex-Governor Altgeld against Carter H. Harrison. The committee appointed at the St. Louis conference in May composed of Committeemen Woodser, Troup and Daniels, reported that they had invested the charges made against Mr. Devlin by the Harrison faction, accusing him of dragging the influence of the national committee into a purely local contest for partisan purposes, and found them sustained. They recommended that the control of the press bureau be transferred to a committee and it was ordered that for the time being at least, the committee which investigated Mr. Devlin should have charge of the press bureau work. Mr. Devlin personally appeared before the national committee and admitted that he had used the influence of the national committee in the Harrison-Altgeld contest, but said that he had instructions to do so from a source which he considered as being equivalent to an order from the national committee. Who gave him these instructions he declined to say. The Harrison men were greatly elated over the result of their attack against Devlin and he declared they cared very little now about the success or failure of the Auditorium meeting.

Shortly after noon the National Democratic committee went into session with 32 states represented by national committeemen or by proxies. Vice Chairman Stone called the meeting to order by thumping the table with his open hand and saying: "Gentlemen of the Democratic national committee, some time ago the Jefferson club of St. Louis gave a dinner to which it invited members of the national committee for a conference. At that conference which was not attended by a majority of the members of the committee, certain matters developed and it was deemed wise to call a general meeting of the national committee. A resolution to that effect was passed and sent to Chairman Jones, who is now abroad. He approved the resolution which declared that the meeting should be held in this city on this date.

Mr. Bryan was present in the meeting as a proxy for S. J. Campau, of Detroit, and also for J. M. Woods, of South Dakota. Ex-Governor Altgeld, who held the proxy of Committeeman White, of Washington, sent word to Mr. White that he could not attend the meeting and the proxy was turned over to Willis J. Abbott, of New York.

The paternity of the Auditorium meeting was settled before meeting of the committee. It was under the auspices of the Altgeld people who originally placed it and notwithstanding the opposition of the Harrison people Mr. Bryan spoke. There was so much opposition among members of the committee to assuming control of the meeting that the Altgeld people, who were, in the first place, very far from being a unit on the proposition to surrender the control of the meeting, finally concluded not to make the tender to the national committee. It was a sure thing that the position would have been rejected by the committee if it had been made.

Among the speakers at the Auditorium were General E. B. Finley and Hon. John J. Lentz, of Ohio. General Finley referred to the recent interviews of ex-Governor Foster and Senator Foraker in reference to President McKinley's financial transactions with Mr. Walker. Mr. Lentz spoke against the administration policy in the Philippines.

BRYAN'S PROPOSITION.

He Proposes to Turn Over a Local Dispute to National Committee. Chicago, July 20.—W. J. Bryan, made a proposition to the warring Democratic factions in Illinois that the meeting, over which there has been so much pulling to and fro to secure his attendance or his absence, be placed under the control of the Democratic national committee. This would relieve him from the dilemma in which he is now placed of taking sides in the Illinois row.

The proposition was made to the Altgeld people who are in control of the meeting and they agreed to refer it to the national committee.

There was a strong undercurrent of feeling among the national committeemen against accepting the proposition, they claiming that it would look too much as though the committee was disposed to endorse the silver proposition. The silver men on the national committee are of course willing to accept charge of the meeting and say that they will have sufficient strength at the meeting to carry Mr. Bryan's propositions through.

New England Bimetallics.

Chicago, July 20.—A large meeting of representatives from the New England states was held for the purpose of organizing "the New England Bimetallic league." An organization was effected. Arrangements were made to hold a mass meeting at some convenient place in New England at which the following speakers have consented to make addresses: William J. Bryan, ex-Governor Altgeld, George-Fred Williams, Judge Tarvin, of Kentucky, Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, Congressman John J. Lentz, of Ohio, ex-Governor William J. Stone, of Missouri, Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, General A. J. Warner, of Ohio, and others.

National Bimetallic Committee.

Chicago, July 20.—The national bimetallic committee met here and elected John Tomlinson, of Alabama, to succeed the late Senator Harris. A committee of three, with the president as a member, was selected to fill any vacancy which may occur in the future. No other business of importance was transacted. It was decided to attend the meeting of the Ohio Valley Bimetallic league for the purpose of framing resolutions for presentation to the national committee and favoring Bryan and 16 to 1. The committee resolved to preserve its own identity as an organization while co-operating with other leagues in furthering the cause of free silver.

Alaskan Boundary Still Unsolved.

Washington, July 20.—The return from Alaska of Senator Fairbanks, head of the American section of the Anglo-American commission, has brought to a decisive issue the future of this body, not only as it relates to the Alaskan boundary but the entire scope of its work. Following extended conferences between Mr. Fairbanks and Secretary Hay as well as with the president, dispatches have been exchanged between the British and Canadian authorities and those in Washington, which are serving to clear up the doubted confusion which has thus far existed. Already it is assured practically beyond a doubt that the commission will not resume its sessions at Quebec on the second of next month to which time it had adjourned, but that its re-assembling will be in the late fall.

Big Railroad Scheme.

New York, July 20.—A local paper says a deal is under way involving the combination of at least four prominent railroads and perhaps two or three more, making a complete trunk line from the Atlantic to the Pacific. The scheme involves a merger of several of the properties in which E. H. Harriman, Kuhn, Loeb & company and Speyer & company are interested and with their friends exert the controlling influence. Among these properties are the Union Pacific, the Illinois Central and the Chicago & Alton, the Chicago Terminal Transfer company, the Oregon Short Line, the Oregon Railway & Navigation company and the Baltimore & Ohio.

Tracks Swept Away.

Dallas, Tex., July 20.—A report from Childress on the line of the Colorado Southern in the Texas panhandle, states that a cloudburst occurred in that region with disastrous results. Much of the track of the Colorado Southern has been swept away. It is known that the property loss is very heavy, but nothing has been learned as to the fate of the people in the inundated section, which embraces portions of Childress, Cottle, Hardman, Wilbarger, Hall, Motley, Donley and Collingsworth counties. This section is thinly settled. Towns are small and far apart. It is feared, however that some lives have been lost.

Columbus, O., July 20.—Suit in quo warranto was brought in the supreme court to test the legality of the council's action in removing Director Dusenbury.

CLAIMS OF BOTH SIDES

Regarding Street Railway Strikes In Greater New York.

CARS ARE STARTED ON TIME

Owing to the Long Watch the Police Are About Fagged Out—Little Violence Manifested by the Strikers During Day.

New York, July 20.—There were no early developments in the railroad strike in Manhattan borough.

Almost without exception the cars started from the barns on schedule time and at 6 a. m. there seemed to be no indication of trouble. When the first car started two policemen were on each car and the early trips were without incident. There was a remarked reduction in the number of passengers carried in the morning rush hours as well as a reduction in the number of cars in operation by the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company. The elevated roads and the DeKalb and Smith street surface roads were taxed to their utmost carrying capacity in consequence.

No disturbances beyond one or two minor assaults occurred during the night.

Notwithstanding the claims of the officials of the various lines that their cars are running on schedule time, General Master Workman Parsons issued a statement in which he declared that the strike was practically won.

He said that 1,500 men were out and more were going out hourly. He denounced as untrue the statement of President Vreeland of the Metropolitan Street Railway company that the company had no objection to its employees belonging to any organization and declared that men who had been for years in the company's employ have been discharged on flimsy excuses because they joined the Surface Railroad Employees' association.

Brooklyn, July 20.—The strike in Brooklyn up to 10 a. m. presented no important changes. More cars were running after 8 a. m. on the various lines than prior to that hour and the lines were more freely patronized. The motormen and conductors express themselves unwilling to run out to the suburbs unless accompanied by police. The police are becoming weary of the continued strain and they are showing it in a marked degree.

No attempt has been made as yet to run a car over the Hicks street line, which was closed early Monday morning. That is an accommodation cross-town line and passes through what is known as "Smoky hollow," a rough locality.

The trolley wires over the entire line are strung with tin cans, old coats and baskets. Several effigies of Rossiter decorate the wires, also placards inscribed with "Down with combinations."

A meeting was held in Kingston hall by 150 employees of the Rapid Transit company who had never a local assembly. It was decided to meet again when an organization will be effected and if the majority endorses such action the men will quit work.

The fact that the police wires have been found cut in several places has caused the department to have tags removed from their wires.

The Promised Big Day.

New York, July 20.—Although General Master Workman Parsons said that Thursday was to be the big day for the strikers in Manhattan borough the day opened in the quietest sort of a way, so far as the strikers were concerned.

Almost without exception the cars on all lines started from their barns on schedule time.

Second avenue, the scene of the greatest gatherings and disturbances, was deserted. A police inspector and 200 policemen slept in the stables of the Second avenue line at Ninety-ninth street and Second avenue. When the first cars started two policemen were on each and the early trips were without incident of serious nature.

Feed Wire Cut.

Cleveland, July 20.—Nine of the 14 lines of the Big Consolidated system were in operation at noon. Up to that hour no disturbances had been reported. The feed wire on Abbey street, near Jennings avenue, was cut. Later Patrolman Patrick Connors and a line-man were driving over the street. They did not observe the wire until the horse brushed against it and was severely shocked. The animal became frightened and ran away. Both men were thrown from the buggy. Patrolman Connors came in contact with the wire and was severely shocked. His condition is not considered serious. The lineman escaped.

SECRETARY ALGER

May Turn Over the War Department Next Monday.

Washington, July 20.—Secretary Alger will relinquish the war portfolio before August 1. He called upon President McKinley at the White House shortly before noon and was with him for a few minutes. When he left he appeared to be in excellent spirits. Assistant Secretary Meikeljohn wired that he would be back on Saturday. "I shall retire before August 1," said the secretary. General Alger said he would go back to Michigan and for the present at least devote his attention to his health.

The secretary said he knew nothing about his successor. Asked as to whether he would press his senatorial candidacy, the secretary replied: "I cannot tell now."

Postmaster General Smith saw the president. As he left the White House he gave an emphatic denial to the suggestion of his possible transfer to the war office.

"I have troubles enough of my own," he said, smilingly.

Secretary Alger was an hour late in reaching his office. He spent that hour in going over his private correspondence at his residence. There were more than the usual number of telegrams. Every member of the secretary's friends outside of Washington wired approval of his action and although the secretary himself did not exhibit any of them there is reason to believe they included messages from some persons very prominent in political life.

When Secretary Alger arrived at his office he entered immediately into conference with Adjutant General Corbin and Major Hopkins. Senator Fairbanks also called. He was taken into the private office and half an hour was spent in conference.

While it has not been definitely decided, it is probable that Secretary Alger will relinquish his duties early next week, perhaps on Monday.

Root May Succeed Alger.

Washington, July 20.—The belief is gaining ground in well-informed circles that Elihu Root, of New York, will be tendered the secretaryship of war. The president has accepted Alger's resignation for August 1.

A Hopeful View.

Colon, Columbia, July 20.—The local press, referring to the appointment of delegates to the Philadelphia exhibition, says the geographical position of the isthmus makes it unmistakably the most important distributing center for South America, and anticipates a great development of the commercial relations between the United States and Central and South America, and, in consequence, beneficial results to the isthmus.

Government Agent's Report.

Waco, Tex., July 20.—Mr. E. S. Holmes, government expert, who was sent to Texas by the agricultural department to determine the extent of damage to the crops by the recent floods, reports the damage to cotton in this section at 10 per cent. Mr. Holmes left for the northern part of the state to continue his investigations, where the damage is supposed to be much greater.

White Settlers Gain Time.

Washington, July 20.—Secretary Hitchcock telegraphed instructions to Captain Mercier in charge of the Leech Lake Indian agency suspending until Aug. 22 the removal of the white settlers—the so-called trespassers—on the agency lands. The order of suspension is to allow time for consideration of additional information that has been filed at the interior department.

Will Meet the Defender.

Bristol, R. I., July 20.—The cup defender Columbia left here for Newport in tow of her tender, the St. Michaels. The Columbia is ready for her races with the old yacht Defender. There still remains more than a week's work on the steel mast which is to replace the one of Oregon pine now in use on the Columbia.

Excessive Heat In London.

London, July 20.—A prolonged spell of unprecedented heat which has prevailed over the entire country reached a climax, the thermometer registering 128 degrees in the sun and 87 degrees in the shade. There have been numerous cases of sunstroke, many ending fatally.

Volunteers Thanked.

Washington, July 20.—The war department made public a telegram from the president to General Otis thanking volunteers in Philippines for their patriotism in remaining in service after the ratification of the peace treaty.

Treasury Statement.

Washington, July 20.—Condition of the treasury: Available cash balance, $279,513,252; gold reserve, $245,021,253.

CROWD NOT SO LARGE

As Expected In Attendance of Epworth League Convention.

OPENING SESSIONS HELD.

Committee on Resolutions Consider the Army Canteen Decision And Question of Seating Statesman Roberts of Utah.

Indianapolis, July 20.—The attendance at the fourth biennial international convention of the Epworth league will be in the neighborhood of from 10,000 to 12,000, according to the revised estimates of the local managers.

The arrivals during the night were disappointing in point of numbers. One of the passengers from New York was Rev. William S. Haven, first vice president of the Epworth league of the M. E. church. He said the New York delegation will eventually aggregate from 300 to 500. So far about 100 have arrived.

The California delegates are working hard for the 1901 convention. About 30 delegates are here, equally divided between Los Angeles and San Francisco. They billed the city with streamers inscribed "California 1901."

Dr. C. B. Mitchell, of Indianapolis, has unexpectedly sprung the announcement that Minneapolis will be entered in the contest for the next convention. He said 500 delegates are en route from Minnesota fully determined to secure the convention.

The committee on resolutions met to consider what shall be the policy of the Epworthians with regard to the seating of Congressman Brigham H. Roberts, of Utah, Attorney General Griggs' decision on army canteens and the amalgamation of all the young people's societies of all the evangelical denominations of the church. The meeting was held behind closed doors and the recommendations of the committee will be kept under cover until Saturday night.

The corner of market and Delaware streets where are located the Epworth tent and Tomlinson hall became the point of interest for leaguers soon after noon. From all parts of the city a steady stream of delegates gaily bedecked with ribbons, and some carrying banners, poured into the entrances of the hall and the tent which are on opposite sides of the street, and but for the efficiency of the police the street would have become hopelessly congested. A chunk of ice could hardly have been carried through the tent without vanishing. The sun beat down on the unprotected canvass like hot iron pouring through a sieve, but the leaguers fanned and seemed to enjoy themselves. The tent's seating capacity is 7,000 and it was well filled but not crowded. Throughout the assemblage the ministerial cloth surmounted by a white tie gave the convention a decidedly religious aspect.

The interior of Tomlinson hall was much cooler and many who first entered the tent went over to the hall.

Hon. Hugh Dougherty, Bluffton, Ind., presided in the tent. Governor Mount welcomed the convention on behalf of Indiana and Hon. Eli F. Ritter followed on behalf of the city of Indianapolis.

These speeches were responded to by Rev. Charles O. Jones, of Bristol, Tenn., for the M. E. church, South; Rev. A. Carman, Toronto, Ont., for Canadian Methodism and Bishop W. X. Ninde, Detroit, Mich., for the M. E. church.

Officers Elected.

Cincinnati, July 20.—The International Association of Distributors closed its session with the hearing of reports of committees and a general discussion about the welfare of the association. The next meeting will be held in Kansas City in July, 1900, the date to be fixed by the executive committee. The following officers were elected to serve the ensuing year: President, John Reid, Kansas City, Mo., re-elected acclamation; secretary, W. H. Steinbrenner, of Cincinnati; treasurer, O. P. Fairchild, of Covington.

Columbus, O., July 20.—The Circulating Wash Boiler company, Cincinnati, capital stock $25,000; the Eastern Ohio Glass company, Barnesville, capital stock $100,000; the Anti-Moccicola company, Cleveland, capital stock $10,000; the Railway Construction company, Cleveland, capital stock $10,000.

WEATHER FORECAST FOR KENTUCKY.—Showers Friday, and in eastern portion Saturday; variable winds.

A CINCINNATI Republican suggests that the President, having fired Secretary Alger, should now drop Boss Hanna from the top of the Washington monument. If this is done, the C. R. says McKinley may stand some show of re-election.

It is all wrong to give the State Central Committee the power to name the precinct committeemen in the various counties. It is not Democratic; it takes away from the people the privilege and their right to choose their own representatives.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR WORTHINGTON must be rather hot at the way the Taylorites of Greenup walked over him in their last county convention. He is reported as declaring that Gen. Taylor's nomination for Governor is "a disgrace to the Commonwealth."

LEWIS COUNTY Republicans talk about giving 1,000 majority next November. They forget. Under the Goebel election law they won't be able to "return" any vote that suits their purpose. The new law was intended to reach such counties as Lewis, where it will insure "a free ballot and a fair count."

GENERAL OTIS' latest dispatch from Manila gives one some idea of the troubles our soldiers are contending with in the Philippines. The rainfall the past twenty days has amounted to forty-one inches and the country is flooded. That is about the total rainfall in this section in twelve months.

THE Army and Navy Journal announces that the case of Captain Carter, who got away with over $2,000,000 of Uncle Sam's money, will soon be finally decided. Well, it's about time. It will be remembered that he was fined $5,000 and ordered dismissed from the service over a year ago. He is still wearing the uniform, however, and drawing pay, while others who later got away with a paltry $1,500 and then returned the money were promptly kicked out of the service.

EX-SECRETARY ALGER is receiving some hot parting shots from the New York journals. Here is what they say of him: Tribune: "He did not possess the confidence of the country."

Times: "His incompetency was manifest."

Journal: "The rottenest fruit falls first; Otis next."

Herald: "People will stand no more experimenting. Roosevelt is the best man for the place."

World: "He should have resigned a year ago."

Many regard the President's action in requesting the resignation simply as a move in his own interest. The Chicago Chronicle says:

"The sacrifice of General Alger has been made for the purpose of saving President McKinley."

The Chinese have only one holiday in the year, and that is at the new year, which date is movable, but generally falls some time in February. This is the time they square up everything and pay off all their debts. Any one not being able to pay all his accounts and to start the new year with a clean sheet is posted as a defaulter and is looked upon with suspicion by every one. It is considered a family disgrace not to pay one up at that time.—Key-stone.

EPWORTH LEAGUERS.

Rev. F. W. Harrop and Rev. U. W. Darlington Chosen Vice Presidents at the State Convention.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 19.—The sixth annual conference of the Kentucky State Union of the Epworth Leagues of the Methodist Church was held in this city this afternoon and night.

Covington was selected as the next place of meeting, and the following officers were elected: R. E. Allison, Bowling Green, President; Rev. F. W. Harrop, Maysville, First Vice President; Miss Addie Bird, Paducah, Second Vice President; Rev. U. W. Darlington, Washington, Third Vice President; Oscar Roeten, Covington, Secretary, and Mrs. O. L. Dolfinger, Louisville, Treasurer.

The annual report was read by Secretary C. A. Cooper. It showed that the contributions for the year had been $1,137. Only twenty-three leagues were reported at the conference. On June 1, 1899, there were 1,326 members, an increase of 330. The average attendance throughout the State for last year has been 638.

Rev. H. G. Turner, of Covington, made the principal address in the afternoon. His subject was "Whereunto?" The speaker said that the league was a child of the church, co-existent, and was bound to live and unquestionably would take the place of the old class meeting in the church. It is fast becoming the predominant power, for it was a true branch of the vine, and would lead the church out of the old ruts. He further declared that the church must adapt itself to the community in which it exists, to the customs and conditions of the people and the times, otherwise it could not teach a universal religion.

River News.

Bonanza down to-night and Nisbet up for Pomeroy.

A nine-foot stage at Pittsburg will let out fully 5,000,000 bushels of coal.

A few towboats got away from Pittsburg with flats with about 200,000 bushels of coal.

The fine towboat T. H. Davis has been chartered by the Government, to be used by the Mississippi River Improvement Commission in the improvement of that river between St. Louis and Memphis. The bids ran from $20 to $75 per day, the Davis bid being $33.33.

Dover News: "The Levana Mills have closed a contract for building twelve barges for the Government. The boats will be square deck barges, 130 feet long, thirty feet wide and six feet deep. The material in them will be mostly of the finest grade of pine. Six hundred—or about twenty-five car-loads of gunwales will be required for the job. It will take about twelve months to complete the contract. At the usual price for this class of work the cost will be about $36,000."

WANAMAKER

Warns President McKinley That His War Is a Failure—People Sick of the Philippines.

[Philadelphia North America.]

More than a month ago the North American warned the President that the American people were sick of the Philippine war, told him it was a failure and called on him to raise a large army and conquer peace. The North American was the first Republican newspaper in the United States to tell the President the plain truth. It owed that duty to the country, to the party and to him. Every Republican journal of influence is repeating to him what the North American then said, and Mr. McKinley is raising the army.

The Republican party desires to be loyal to the President, but self-preservation is the controlling motive with political parties as with men.

The Republican party is responsible for this war. Does Mr. McKinley think that the party would care to go into the Presidential canvas with the war unwon, and with a failure and retainer of failures as its candidate?

The Republican party is more important than any one of its members. It knows this, and can be depended on to act upon the knowledge.

Unload Otis, Mr. McKinley, and end the war.

Discovered by a Woman.

Another great discovery has been made, and that too, by a lady in this country. "Disease fastened its clutches upon her and for seven years she withstood its severest tests, but her vital organs were undermined and death seemed imminent. For three months she coughed incessantly, and could not sleep. She finally discovered a way to recovery, by purchasing of us a bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, and was so much relieved on taking first dose, that she slept all night; and with two bottles, has been absolutely cured. Her name is Mrs. Luther Lutz." Thus writes W. C. Hamrick & Co., of Shelby, N. C. Trial bottles free at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1. Every bottle guaranteed.

A REPORT from an authentic source announces that the directors of the Cincinnati, Georgetown and Portsmouth railroad have abandoned the idea of building the proposed extension to their road from Georgetown to West Union. The reason assigned for this action is the failure on the part of the people along the proposed route to renew the $20,000 subscription, the notes of which expired the first of the present month. The company requested that the notes be extended to July 1, 1900. Only a small per cent of the subscribers have renewed their notes.

Robbed the Grave.

A startling incident, of which Mr. John Oliver, of Philadelphia, was the subject, is narrated by him as follows: "I was in a most dreadful condition. My skin was almost yellow, eyes sunken, tongue coated, pain continually in back and sides, no appetite—gradually growing weaker day by day. Three physicians had given me up. Fortunately a friend advised trying Electric Bitters, and to my great joy and surprise, the first bottle made a decided improvement. I continued their use for three weeks and am now a well man. I know they saved my life and robbed the grave of another victim." No one should fail to try them. Only 50c. a bottle at J. J. Wood & Son's drug store.

The Best 50c. Linen Skirt at 39c.

You have often paid 50c. for a skirt not the equal of these. We have known them to sell elsewhere for 75c. They are made of heavy linen and have a full three and a half yard sweep. These skirts are not "skimped." They have a "hang" about 'em that shows they were built by makers of well-fitting skirts. Merely to avoid summer dullness, we've marked 'em 39c. A regular $1.50 White Pique Skirt is marked 98c.

Newly-Arrived 15c. Lawns Are Now 10c.

Your advantage in having our buyers visit New York City is well shown in this newly-arrived lot of Lawns. They come in dainty Dimities, exquisite corded Mulls and Muslinettes. WILLIAM PRESTON JOHNSTON.

A Son of the Distinguished Gen. Albert Sydney Johnston Passed Away This Week.

The death of Colonel William Preston Johnston, son of General Albert Sidney Johnston, has been mentioned. It occurred a few days since at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Tucker, in Lexington, Virginia, and his remains were brought to Louisville for burial.

He was born in Louisville in 1833, and had lived for many years at New Orleans, where he was President of Tulane University. He was a highly accomplished, scholarly man, and wrote a biography of his distinguished father that attracted a great deal of notice. His mother was a Miss Preston, of the large family of that name in Virginia and Kentucky.

It was the writer's pleasure to meet and talk with him in the Crescent City not long since and we found him a most affable and agreeable gentleman. He asked many questions about men and affairs in his father's native town and county.

POLICEMAN WALLACE Thursday recovered a double-barrel shotgun brought here by the negro Charles King whom he arrested some days ago. King took the gun from his guard at Mt. Sterling when he made his escape at that point. Mr. Wallace found it under a stable on the Cochran lot east of the L. and N. round house.

Bismark's Iron Nerve

Was the result of his splendid health. Indomitable will and tremendous energy are not found where stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels are out of order. If you want these qualities and the success they bring, use Dr. King's New Life Pills. They develop every power of brain and body. Only 25 cents at J. J. Wood & Son's, druggists.

A HEADQUARTERS detective is investigating a case which is not only peculiar but pathetic. The story was reported by Miss Kittle Turner, the charming young daughter of George W. Turner, deceased. At the time of his death Mr. Turner held the position of assistant city chemist. He overworked himself during the recent smallpox epidemic and finally contracted a cold, which resulted in his death. Naturally his death was a great shock to his widow. Some two years ago Mrs. Turner gave a tintype photograph of her husband to one of those "photo enlarging" companies. It was the best picture she had of her husband. When she received the enlarged picture she was not satisfied with it and returned it. Since then she has been trying to secure the tintype without avail. It was not until after her husband's death that she made a decided effort to recover the tintype, but the company paid no attention to her repeated requests. She wants the police to aid her in recovering the picture.

The above is taken from the Cincinnati Times-Star, and is verified every few days at our Studio. Moral: Don't give your orders to agents. Leave them at CADY'S ART STUDIO, where the original picture will be safe and the enlarged picture will please you.
